ABOUT A.B. ANWAR

A.B. Anwar is a marketing professional, Paralympic hopeful in the sport of Boccia, and the creator behind @AutomationMaestro — one of YouTube's most focused channels dedicated to macOS and iOS automation. Since officially launching in October 2019, A.B. Anwar has built a tight-knit community of Mac power users who rely on his tutorials to genuinely transform the way they work. With deep expertise in tools like Keyboard Maestro, iOS Shortcuts, AppleScript, Hazel, Hammerspoon, and TextExpander, A.B. Anwar teaches his audience to make their devices work for them — not the other way around. His background in marketing means every integration is handled with strategic clarity and professionalism.
